1. This is an application seeking to challenge an order issuing process by the special Judge, CBI in Special Case no.48 of 2004. The proper remedy is to file an application for discharge. The Advocate for the applicant states that he will withdraw this application and make application for discharge within 2 weeks from today. If such an application is made within 2 weeks from today, the trial Court will hear the same expeditiously and preferably dispose of the same within six months. Subject to such liberty application stands disposed of.
